

Hong Krabi (Koh Yao Yai)

Spectacular beach, clear water, suitable for swimming. Snorkeling and the viewing and feeding of fish. Safe shallow beach

Pak Bia

Consisting of 3 islands that you can walk between at low tide. Suitable for swimming, Snorkeling and the viewing and feeding of fish. Sometimes very popular

Long Island (Koh Yao Yai)

Anchor at long sandy beach – great location for lunch aboard

Koh Naka

Long stretch of beach with white sand, palm fringed. Good swimming. Beach Bar (Bob Marley style music!) Sometimes completely deserted.

Koh Rang Yai

Delightful island. Roaming peacocks, bicycle trail, commercial pearl farm, volleyball, kayak's, beach restaurant with local and some international dishes. Swimming.

Koh Hong

Small bay almost enclosed by dramatic limestone cliff formations. Great for lunch at anchor. Sightseeing opportunities. Not suitable for swimming.

James Bond Island (Koh Khao Ping Kan)

Used in the James Bond film 'The Man With The Golden Gun' . Dramatic rock formations, good sightseeing, great phot opportunities. Go ashore (a few small stalls). Not suitable for swimming. Can be very busy.

Koh Wa

Good, large sandy beach, good swimming, sheltered (access subject to tidal conditions)

Los Samah Bay

Clear water, suitable for snorkeling, good views and beach.

Maya Bay

Deep crystal clear waters good for swimming and snorkeling and viewing marine life. Good beach. Used in the filming of Leonardo DiCaprio's film 'The Beach'. Great sightseeing but can be very busy

Viking Caves

Explore Viking caves on foot.

Koh Khai Nok (Egg Island)

Small isolated island, beautiful white sandy beach, suitable for swimming, snorkeling, teeming with tropical fish – feed them by hand standing in the water. Always very popular. Beach bars

Raya Wadee Beach or Rai Ley

(Choice depends on weather / tides). Interesting cave formations where local pay homage to phallic symbols! White sandy beaches, good swimming, beach bar. Five star hotel with beach restaurant.

Koh Hey

Delightful isolated location with a big white sandy beach. Good swimming, snorkeling and marine life. Beach bar

Monkey Beach

Long enchanting beach sometimes occupied by monkeys – feed them bananas! Clear water

Koh Dam Hok / Dam Khan

(Chicken island)

Adjoining islands. Spectacular rock formations (One is known locally as the 'Turtle rock'). Sandy beaches. It is possible to stroll between islands at low tide.

Koh Panak

Small shallow beach but not so good for swimming. Palm trees and great rock formations and scenery

Koh Racha Yai

Explore the island. Good swimming, snorkeling and fish viewing. Pleasant bay, clear water. Beach bar.

